A collection of contemporary poetry that celebrates life above all else. Raw and intimate, Nena softly invites readers to explore survival, growth, healing and introspection. Extending beyond the subject of romantic love, it recognizes the importance of femininity, empowerment and keeping your heart full in every moment. A total of 97 works of poetry and prose come together as an emotional tour de force dedicated to those who cannot help but be inspired by the world around them.

"Who Is God?" is a Bible Lesson Series that attempts to help the reader understand the character of God. Many people go through life knowing about God, but not fully knowing and understanding His true character. In these lessons, you will learn some of the names of God as they describe who God is and what He means in our lives.

Silverberg returns to the world of his greatest triumph - Majipoor - to tell the thrilling story of a young man's quest into the unknown! For young Prince Harpirias, the journey into the tundra beyond Majipoor might as well be a death sentence. But it is the only way to escape his dull job in a provincial city. The mission: to rescue a lost party of palaeontologists searching for the remains of a fabled species of dragons. With only a small band of soldiers and one wily Shapeshifter for company, Harpirias must endure blizzards, ice storms, privation and strange beasts. But when they reach their destination, they discover a shockingly barbaric culture. One mistake, one minor violation of custom, and the prince and his retinue will face endless captivity - or endless death!

Elizabeth Angela Marguerite Bowes Lyon, the youngest daughter of the Earl of Strathmore, was born on 4 August, 1900. Few could have imagined the profound effect she would have on Britain and its people. This official biography tells not only her story but, through it, that of the country she loved so devotedly.

A year's worth of vital industry data plus analysis that helps you plan for the future.

The arrogant Duke of Trent intends to marry a well-bred Englishwoman. The last woman he would ever consider marrying is the adventuresome Merry Pelford—an American heiress who has infamously jilted two fiancés. But after one provocative encounter with the captivating Merry, Trent desires her more than any woman he has ever met. He is determined to have her as his wife, no matter what it takes. And Trent is a man who always gets what he wants. The problem is, Merry is already betrothed, and the former runaway bride has vowed to make it all the way to the altar. As honor clashes with irresistible passion, Trent realizes the stakes are higher than anyone could have imagined. In his battle to save Merry and win her heart, one thing becomes clear: All is fair in love and war.

Remembering
A Phenomenological Study
Second Edition
Edward S. Casey
A pioneering investigation of the multiple ways of remembering and the difference that memory makes in our daily lives. A Choice Outstanding Academic Book
‘‘An excellent book that provides an in-depth phenomenological and philosophical study of memory.’’ —Choice
‘‘... a stunning revelation of the pervasiveness of memory in our lives.’’ —Contemporary Psychology
[‘Remembering] presents a study of remembering that is fondly attentive to its rich diversity, its intricacy of structure and detail, and its wide-ranging efficacy in our everyday, life-world experience... genuinely pioneering. It ranges far beyond what established traditions in philosophy and psychology have generally taken the functions and especially the limits of memory to be.’’ —The Humanistic Psychologist
Edward S. Casey provides a thorough description of the varieties of human memory, including recognizing and reminding, reminiscing and commemorating, body memory and place memory. The preface to the new edition extends the scope of the original text to include issues of collective memory, forgetting, and traumatic memory, and aligns this book with Casey ’ s newest work on place and space. This ambitious study demonstrates that nothing in our lives is unaffected by remembering.
